Founded in 1983, the JGAA is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that educates, motivates and inspires Arizona's young people to become future community leaders and uses the game of golf as a platform for juniors to practice the inherent life skills the game has to offer. Open to boys and girls age 8-18, the JGAA conducts more than 100 junior activities each year including tournaments and clinics, and leadership and recognition events.

Founded in 2021, The Pops & Jr. Youth Golf Program is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that was created to celebrate the legacy of Pops Dahlstrom and Hub Goyen Jr., two men dedicated to teaching kids from every walk of life the game of golf; not solely with the purpose that they would someday get a scholarship, or make the tour, but also to give them A Pathway To A World of Opportunity.
